Welcome from the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

We are excited to formally invite you to the 2019 ACFE Fraud Conference Middle East in Abu Dhabi, 24-26 February 2019, at Jumeirah at Etihad Towers. The conference will be an invaluable opportunity for anti-fraud professionals in the region to meet and discuss the latest trends and tools in fraud prevention and detection.

The keynote lineup includes Harvard Business School professor and author of Why They Do It: Inside the Mind of the White-Collar Criminal, Eugene Soltes, and McAfee’s Chief Technology Officer, Asia-Pacific, Ian Yip.

The sessions will delve into some of the most prevalent topics in fraud fighting today: cyberfraud, data analytics, anti-fraud strategies, virtual currencies and strategies for using the internet and social media to investigate fraud. Speakers will explore case studies from the region as well as best practices for conducting investigations. The event will be an opportunity for anti-fraud professionals from across the globe to network with, and learn from, key players in the anti-fraud industry.

I would love for you to be a part of this prestigious event, and I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,
Bruce Dorris, J.D., CFE, CPA
President and CEO
Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

Welcome from the Abu Dhabi Accountability Authority

Once again, Abu Dhabi will host the ACFE Fraud Conference Middle East, in a repeat of the 2018 successful event that witnessed the gathering of more than 450 professionals from across the globe to discuss, explore, innovate and create knowledge on integrity, accountability and anti-fraud matters.

The 2019 ACFE Fraud Conference Middle East, to be held in Abu Dhabi between the dates of February 24 and 26 2019, however promises to approach these disciplines and topics in a revived tone; now, the speakers will seek to go beyond the “who” and the “when”, and dive deep into the “how”.

The industry demands it. The attendees demand it. Sound governance and prudent practice demands it.

Hence the efforts undertaken by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners to seek and bring on board some of the most prominent speakers and experts to this edition of the conference. Thus, with a brilliant mix of academics, seasoned professionals and leaders in their industries, the 2019 ACFE Fraud Conference Middle East will once again provide a unique platform for the sharing of knowledge and experiences for the embetterment of our profession.

The Abu Dhabi Accountability Authority, by hosting this event, further demonstrates our desire, commitment and willingness to support related efforts in the establishment of well-governed practices, with the support of the Government of the Emirate of Abu Dhabi whose journey down this route is well-known to the world.

We look forward to receiving you all in February in Abu Dhabi for the conference to create, enhance and share knowledge.

Sincerely,
Hamad Al Hurr Al Suwaidi
Chairman of the Abu Dhabi Accountability Authority

The course fulfills the annual ethics CPE requirement for CFEs. Schedule and speakers subject to change.
Eugene Soltes
Author, Why They Do It: Inside the Mind of the White-Collar Criminal
Jakurski Family Associate Professor of Business Administration, Harvard Business School

Eugene Soltes is the Jakurski Family Associate Professor of Business Administration at Harvard Business School where his research focuses on how individuals and organisations confront and overcome challenging situations. He teaches in several of the school’s executive education programmes and was awarded the Charles M. Williams Award for outstanding teaching in 2015.

Soltes’ work on corporate misconduct and fraud culminated in the book Why They Do It: Inside the Mind of the White-Collar Criminal, which was described by Kirkus Reviews as “a groundbreaking study” on white-collar criminality. The book explores why wealthy and successful executives often engage in deception.

Ian Yip
Chief Technology Officer, Asia-Pacific, McAfee

Ian Yip has worked with organisations globally on cybersecurity initiatives and projects, particularly in the areas of strategy and transformation, data protection, threat management, and governance, risk and compliance. Yip has held positions across the Asia-Pacific region and Europe in some of the world’s leading companies including McAfee, EY and IBM.

Ryan C. Hubbs, CFE, CIA, CCEP
Global Anticorruption and Fraud Manager, Schlumberger
ACFE Regent

Ryan C. Hubbs is the Global Anticorruption and Fraud Manager for Schlumberger in Houston, Texas. Hubbs has more than 16 years of experience managing corporate investigations, forensic audits and compliance initiatives. He has conducted hundreds of sensitive internal engagements concerning fraud, corruption, contracts, vendors and suppliers, and employee-related issues.

John F. Sopko
Inspector General, Special Inspector General, Afghanistan Reconstruction

John F. Sopko was sworn in as Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction on July 2, 2012. Sopko, appointed to the post by U.S. President Barack Obama, has more than 30 years of experience in oversight and investigations as a prosecutor, congressional counsel and senior federal government advisor.
2A/5A Unlocking Efficient Financial Investigations with Data Analytics
Sunday, 09:00-10:20 | Monday, 09:00-10:20
LEVEL: BASIC
Nick Hourigan
Senior Managing Director, FTI Consulting
Henry Duggan
Managing Director, FTI Consulting
This session will introduce the use of advanced data analytics in complex financial investigations. A case study of a recent high-value fraud claim will give insight into the interrogation of high-volume document and transactional data discovery, and show how bespoke algorithms can be used for tracing exercises involving complex financial information. The innovative use of technology in this case allowed investigators to uncover the true nature of trades and transfers in a vast and chaotic document population.

3A Panel Discussion: Identifying and Managing Fraud Risks in the Energy Industry
Sunday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Ryan C. Hubbs, CFE, CIA, CCEP
Global Anticorruption and Fraud Manager, Schlumberger ACFE Regent
In this panel discussion, you will learn about fraud risks unique to the energy industry and best practices to prevent, detect and investigate such frauds. Hear from industry leaders from different organisations on how they are combatting fraud risks in their companies. Questions from the audience are encouraged in this discussion session.

4A/7A Improving Your Data Security and GDPR Compliance
Sunday, 15:20-16:40 | Monday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Stephen Hill, Ph.D., MLPI, CIIP
Managing Director, Hill Bingham Ltd
High-profile data breaches including Sony, Yahoo and Uber are a wake-up call to organisations everywhere — so just how safe is your data? This session will demonstrate how to review the effectiveness of your data security safeguards and will focus on the GDPR and the significant changes that organisations need to adopt.

6A Enhanced Due Diligence and Open-Source Investigation Methods and Tools
Monday, 10:50-12:10
LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE
Abdallah Alomari, CFE, CAMS, CAPM, GRCP
Founder & General Manager, KYC Jordan
This session will focus on the different resources used in investigations, including techniques to narrow searches and get the information you need. You will learn about research databases and sources of information available in the Middle East to track assets, sources of wealth and corporate registry, among others.

2B/5B Cross-Border Asset Tracing
Sunday, 09:00-10:20 | Monday, 09:00-10:20
LEVEL: ADVANCED
Richard Trainer, CFE
Legal Director, Mishcon de Reya LLP
This session will examine two fascinating case studies to raise your awareness of the legal tools available in the global asset-tracing armory. The first involves a $63 million claim against the former seventh richest man in the world, with asset-freezing and disclosure orders in shadowy jurisdictions coordinated by London lawyers. The second will demonstrate how victims of fraud can use private criminal prosecutions to recover assets.

3B The Rise of Mobile Data and Leveraging Technology in Investigations
Sunday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: ADVANCED
Anita Barker, FCA
Partner, Control Risks
This session will explore how technology and analytic techniques can help deliver results faster when investigating allegations of fraud or corruption, and will walk through a real-life example. It is intended for experienced investigators who want to learn how to leverage technology in an investigation.

4B/7B Big Data Against Corruption: How Organisations and Governments Can Optimise Data Analytics in the Fight Against Corruption
Sunday, 15:20-16:40 | Monday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE
Ghaz Shah
Senior Director, Alvarez & Marsal Middle East Limited
This session will explore the actions available to organisations in their fight against corruption, what proactive measures need to be undertaken to collect and process data, how to flag and investigate concerns, what planning and actions are required for monitoring and supervision, and what factors impact the success of such massive projects.

6B Auditing Third-Party Business Partners
Monday, 10:50-12:10
LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE
Hassan Metwally, CFE, CPA, CIA, CCEP
Global Compliance Auditor, Bio-Rad Laboratories
Auditing is not just about the books and records, but also evaluating what is being done to drive compliance from the company to third-party business partners to mitigate corruption risks. Different types of partners bring different risks. In this session, you will learn how to conduct a full-scope audit to understand what risks a third-party partner brings.
TRACK C

2C/5C Forensic Interviewing Techniques

Sunday, 09:00-10:20 | Monday, 09:00-10:20
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Nicholas Cameron, CA
Partner, KPMG

This session will cover advanced forensic interviewing techniques that will help you prepare your line of questioning in different types of interviews, including witness and suspect interviews.

3C Up in the Air: Loyalty Program Fraud and Corporate Ethics

Sunday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: BASIC
Amir Mousa, CFE, CIA, CRMA
Internal Audit Section Head, Al Ain Holding Group

The session will explore schemes used to take advantage of travel points, hotel points, credit card points and others. You will learn how to uncover the frauds and controls to prevent future frauds from occurring. This session will also discuss how to approach an ethical dilemma your employees or coworkers might be experiencing and where to look for guidance.

4C/7C Oversight in Conflict: Detecting Fraud in Challenging Environments

Sunday, 15:20-16:40 | Monday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
John Sopko
Inspector General, Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction

This session will explore security and other existential challenges of operating in a place like Afghanistan, and highlight best practices developed by the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR) to conduct meaningful oversight in the face of these challenges. This session will focus on the mission of SIGAR to oversee the USD $132 billion reconstruction effort in Afghanistan, and the unique challenges of conducting oversight there.

6C Soft Controls for Fraud Prevention: Ethics and Culture in Auditing

Monday, 10:50-12:10
LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE
Muneer Mughairy, MBA, CFE, CIA, CISA
Chief Internal Auditor, Oman International Development and Investment Company

Many fraud incidents take place as a result of failed internal controls. Hard (tangible) internal controls such as a segregation of duties, supervisory review, authority matrices and many others are easy to audit. However, soft (intangible) controls such as ethics, culture, board oversight and management style are more challenging to review. By looking at recent examples, such as Toshiba and Wells Fargo, you will see failures in soft controls and identify red flags.

TRACK D

2D/5D Fraud Risk Intelligence: Assessing the Unknown Fraud Risk

Sunday, 09:00-10:20 | Monday, 09:00-10:20
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Iyad Mourtada, CFE, CIA, CRMA, CCSA
Managing Director, OpenThinking Academy

The quality of a fraud risk assessment depends on your ability to look for potential fraud risks, assess them properly and then rank them in the right order to manage them. In this session, you will learn how to develop your fraud risk intelligence to improve your ability to conduct fraud risk assessments.

3D Dark Web Threat Intelligence and Investigations

Sunday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Ritesh Bhatia, CEH, DCPP, DCPLA
Director - Cybercrime Investigations, V4WEB

As the internet grows, the frauds in cyberspace are multiplying. Social engineering skills are being mastered and used across the world, and data from successful breaches end up on the dark web. In this session, you will learn the dangers of cyberfrauds and how to investigate them on the dark web.

4D/7D Tracking, Tracing and Investigating Cryptocurrency

Sunday, 15:20-16:40 | Monday, 13:30-14:50
LEVEL: OVERVIEW
Teresa Anaya, CFE
Director, Blockchain Intelligence Group

This session will provide an overview of the basic concepts of cryptocurrency, including centralised versus decentralised, market size and types of coins. It will address initial coin offerings (ICOs), cryptocurrency ATMs, evidence considerations and peer-to-peer exchanges, along with at least one case study related to the Fentanyl/opioid crisis in the U.S.

6D Panel Discussion: Enhancing Your Fraud Risk Management Strategy

Monday, 10:50-12:10
LEVEL: OVERVIEW

In this panel discussion, you will hear from experts in fraud risk management on the trends and risks they face, and best practices in fraud risk management. Audience participation is encouraged in this interactive session.
Investigating Shell Companies

Tuesday, 09:00-14:20
LEVEL: OVERVIEW

Ryan C. Hubbs, CFE, CIA, CCEP
Global Anticorruption and Fraud Manager, Schlumberger
ACFE Regent

The revelations of the Panama Papers, UnaOil scandal and the recent Paradise Papers leaks have highlighted that shell companies should be a focus for fraud examiners and compliance professionals. Shell companies are increasingly being used to evade sanctions, facilitate money laundering, enable the transfer of illegal proceeds and disguise corruption. This session will discuss identifying, investigating and preventing contact with potential shell companies and their beneficiaries.
